

Slowboe

Slowboe always seems to have her head in the clouds! She is a dreamer who gets distracted at every turn.

She drifts away to her own fluffy world, dreaming of adventures in far off lands, tales of princesses and castles, moon beams and fairytales, and of course, her sweet prince.

She likes to lay in the sunshine, looking at the clouds, pretending they are great galleons, sailing across the sky, carrying pirates and treasure.

Slowboe spends all of her time floating in a daydream, she never seems to get anywhere on time. Even to work, at the Peeboe Boetique.

Floating through her days and smiling at the flowers, she looks forward to her trips to the Bowling Alley and rollerblading with her best friend Disco!
